

Any person found guilty of fishing or fishing for in non-tidal waters any species of fish without having first procured an angler's license and having said license, button or badge displayed on person at time of said fishing, or for refusing to show said license, button or badge when demanded by the State Game Warden or any Deputy Game Warden, Sheriff, Constable, or other officer or person or failing to display license on person where it is visible at all times or violating any of the other provisions of this sub-title, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace or Court of Justice of the county or city where the offense was committed shall be fined Ten Dollars ($10.00) for each and every offense and shall stand committed to the county jail or the Baltimore City jail until such fine and costs are paid, but such imprisonment shall not exceed ten (10) days for each offense. Any person found fishing or fishing for any species of fish in non-tidal waters and who, through inadvertence, has not the license on his or her person at the time of arrest but who shall present same to the Court before whom he or she was convicted within five (5) days after conviction and if said Court, after making an investigation, finds said license and button or badge which is presented was duly issued prior to the apprehension of said person, then at the discretion of said Court the fine shall be Five Dollars ($5.00) for each and every offense instead of Ten Dollars ($10.00) as herein prescribed.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That if any clause, sentence, paragraph or section of this Act shall, for any reason, be adjudged by any Court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional and invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph or section thereof so found unconstitutional and invalid.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That all laws, applying to angler's licenses, whether general or local, except as provided in this Act, be and they are hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall become effective June 1, 1941.

Approved April 28, 1941.
